

my husband is a long haul trucker and we have satellite radio at home and in the truck. we pay for this service so we have a choice what we listen to and when. also the weather and traffic reports are a very big help for my husband. this is a pay service and we are willing to pay the price, and noone should be able to dictate what is broadcasted on a private service.